

HIABC DEFECT RECOGNITION COURSE

SEPTEMBER 12-14, 2018 in Richmond

To coincide with our HIABC Education & QGM on Saturday, September 15th, the Defect Recognition Course is being offered in Richmond on Wednesday-Friday, September 12-14.

Inspectors today must have detailed knowledge of the various elements of home inspection. The HIABC Defect Recognition Course (DRC) is a significant resource which will allow you to review and discuss defects with experts and your peers, thereby increasing your knowledge, while reducing the risk of litigation.

The course is instructed by approved and qualified HIABC Accredited Inspector, Harry Bradford. Harry was instrumental in the development of this highly interactive and valuable course.

Participant reviews from past participants, from Candidate Members to Seasoned Inspectors have rated this course as excellent and a must-attend!

The DRC consists of nine modules:

10 MRCs

- *Roofing
- *Structure
- *Electrical
- *Heating and AC
- *Report Writing
- *Exterior
- *Plumbing
- *Insulation & Vapour Barriers (Building Envelope)
- *Interior

Cost: $450.00

Date: Wed -Fri Sep 12-14, 2018
