

CARSON DUNLOP HOME INSPECTION TRAINING PROGRAM

HIABC's preferred educational partner, Carson Dunlop, is approved by Consumer Protection BC for provincial licensing requirements. The training program is 100% online and includes live, interactive webinars with expert instructors who are also experienced BC home inspectors.

The course takes nine months to complete, but new students can enter the program at any time. To meet the requirements of Consumer Protection BC, the Courses are split between live classroom and self-study, for a total of 420 hours (42 hours per course). There are nine technical courses and one Communication and Professional Practice Course.

COURSE FORMAT

- Instructor led live online classes
 - There are eight three-hour online classes for each of nine technical courses.
- Self-study
 - This includes reading, completing interactive online exercises, completing online case studies and quizzes.
- Examinations
 - There is a midterm and final examination for each course, administered online during class. Results are available immediately upon completion of the exam.
- Quizzes
 - There are two quizzes for every Course.
 - Quizzes can be done during the class but must be submitted by 11pm the following Sunday.
- The Communication & Professional Practice Course
 - Completely self-study and should be completed at your own pace.
 - There is also a midterm and final exam, which you can take online whenever you are ready.
- Schedule
 - The nine technical courses are run consecutively, but students may take the courses in any order.
 - Each technical course will start at the beginning of the scheduled month and run for four weeks.
 - You'll be able to access the Course page on the online portal when the start date gets close.
